Local Author Day
FAQs

What is the date/time of the event?
The event will take place on Saturday, November 7, 2026, from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Where is the event location?
The event will take place at the Lilburn Library Branch (4817 Church St NW, Lilburn, GA 30047).

What if I do not live in Gwinnett County?
Living in Gwinnett County is not a requirement to participate in the event, but you must live in one of the counties surrounding Gwinnett.

Can I drop off a copy of my book at one of the library branches rather than mail it?
Yes, please clearly label the book as a Local Author Day submission. Also, include your name and contact information.

What happens to my book if I'm not selected to participate?
Books that are not selected will be distributed to the branches or donated to local free libraries.

Will I be contacted if I am not chosen to participate?
Yes, all submissions will receive an email notification by early October.

Can I apply for next year's event, whether or not I was selected for this year's program?
If you have already been selected to participate, you can not resubmit the same book.

How will the event be set up? Will I have my own singing table?
Each author can sell their own book(s). You will be provided with a table and two chairs.

Can the library staff help me sell my books?
No. The Library is not involved with book sales. Authors must bring their own cash or change and devices to accept debit or credit card transactions.

How do I get my book in the collection at GCPL?
For more information about adding your book to the Library's collection, visit ask.gwinnettpl.org.

Who do I contact if I have questions?
Please contact the Adult Services Department at events@gwinnettpl.org
